My hearts been in a drought but it just wont seem to rain I can feel that pressure rising but it just wont seem to rain the skies are getting darker but it just wont seem to rain and I need you here beside me but it just wont seem to rain to rain to rain to rain to rain down, no it just wont seem to rain to rain to rain to rain to rain to rain down no it just wont seem to

Well my soul is getting thirsty, but it just wont seem to rain and im burning up inside but it just wont seem to rain the drops the should be falling but it just wont seem to rain and I wish that you were calling but it just wont seem to rain to rain to rain to rain to rain to rain down no it just wont seem to rain to rain to rain to rain to rain to rain down no it just wont seem to rain to rain to rain to rain to rain to rain down no it just wont seem to
