

each night when I go to bed I can see you in my dreams you stand there sparkling like a star a witch a queen I reach out to touch you and you pull me close and tight and thats when I know I always want you by my side so

Shine On
shine on
shine on
shine on
shine onnnn

the way you touch me sends chills right up my spine your cat like eyes sparkle with the golden light divine and sometimes I can hear you in my mind telling me to open up and onward I should shine so

Shine On
shine on
shine on
shine on
shine onnnn
